Debt makes everything a temptation. It lowers a man's self respect, places him at the mercy of his tradesman

OJ-1353/5360 (2)

and his servant and renders him a slave in many respects, for he can no longer call himself his own master, nor boldly look the world in the face. It is also difficult for a man, who is in debt to be truthful; hence it is said that lying rides on debt's back. The debtor has to frame excuses to his creditor for postponing payment of the money he owes to him and probably also to contrive falsehood. It is easy enough for a man who will exercise a healthy resolution to avoid incurring the first obligation; but the facility with which that has been incurred often becomes a temptation to second, and very soon the unfortunate borrower often becomes so entangled that no late exertion of industry can set him free.

UNIT-IV

Q.4. (a) Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions below :

Man longs for a happy and peaceful life. He does not want to face any sorrow, misfortunes or failures. For him, life should be a continuous flow of success, peace, progress and prosperity. Man should, however, realize that adversities in life have their own advantages. It is these moments of stress, suffering and misfortunes which bring forth the best faculties of man. These moments make him thoughtful and believe in God. In fact man learns a lot from his failures and sufferings. Just as the heat of the fire turns impure gold into pure, failures give us courage to work hard and face adversities bravely and overcome them. Milton and Soordas wrote best, when they become blind. Numerous instances can be given to prove that great things have been achieved in times of suffering and adversity.

Questions :

[5]

- (i) What kind of life does man wish to lead?
- (ii) What are the advantages of adversities?
- (iii) What do failures give us?
- (iv) When did Milton and Soordas write best?
- (v) When can great things be achieved?
