3. Write a precis of the given passage and suggest a suitable title :

10

Let us briefly turn to the question of quality of life. As society developed, differences between the rich and the poor began to emerge. There were appreciable differences between the life styles and consumption levels of these classes. But how rich was the rich class, and how poor was the poor class? Today there are the super rich for whom consumption level, the sky is the limit, and the poor of the poor who find minimum needs for survival unobtainable. Relative affluence or poverty does make a difference in quality of life, but wealth should not be confused with happiness as it does not necessarily add to the richness of life. Even in the modern society there is the same gap between rich and poor. Hence financial condition contributes to the quality of life even now in our country.

(3)

Unit-IV

4. (a) Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow :

Of men's earliest inventions we know very little. The first may have been the use of a stone to crack a nut. The next was possibly the use of a stick to strike an enemy. Once man found that stick and stone were useful, it was only a step further to the making of a rude weapon by fastening a stone to the end of a string. Man used stick and stone before he dared to meddle with fire. Fire, of course, existed; for lightning must sometimes have set the forests ablaze just as it does today; and in those days volcanoes were much more active than they now are. The forgotten hero who first dared to tame fire to his own use was the greatest of early inventors, for once had fire, he was the master of all lower creatures.
